

SEN LAW CONFERENCE

TUESDAY 5 MARCH 2019
PROSPERO HOUSE, LONDON SE1 1GA

A one-day specialist conference providing legal and policy updates across all aspects of this fast-moving and developing area of law.

Who should attend?

- ✓ Lawyers and advisers in SEN law
- ✓ Local authority decision makers
- ✓ IASS advisers
- ✓ SEN professionals, including educational psychologists, occupational therapists and speech and language therapists
- ✓ School and college staff
- ✓ NGOs and campaign groups

REGISTRATION: 08.45 | CONFERENCE STARTS: 09.30
CONFERENCE ENDS: 16.30

Confirmed speakers and topics include:

- The SEND crisis
Ali Fiddy, Chief Executive, IPSEA
- Future SEND direction – key priorities
André Imich, SEN & Disability Professional Adviser, Department for Education
- SEND complaints: the past 12 months
Sharon Chappell, Assistant Ombudsman, Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman
- An update from the SEND Tribunal
Judge Melanie Lewis, HM Courts & Tribunal Service, First Tier Tribunal HESC Chamber
- SEN and disability law: the interface
Sarah Hannett and Aidan Wills, Matrix Chambers
- Children and Families Act 2014: the role of health
Lorraine Mulrone, Senior Nurse Children and Young People, SEND Programme Lead, NHS England
- Joint local area SEND inspections: findings to date
Gaynor Roberts, Senior HMI, Ofsted
- SEN case-law update
David Wolfe QC, Matrix Chambers

Price per person: £225

Book your place at:

www.senlawconference.co.uk

